SAFETY OFFICERS ON STREET LIGHTING

At its November meeting in Betty's Olde Towne House last Wednesday (Nov. 5), the Mass. Safety Officers League heard engineer Edwin Putnam of the Western Mass. Electric Co. discuss adequate street lighting as a means of crime prevention. He showed a film, "Out of the Shadows," produced jointly by the Street and Highway Lighting Bureau and the Edison Electric Institute, demonstrating how poorly lighted streets tend to encourage the nighttime criminal. Pictured above, l. to r., are Charles Balin, president of the W.S. Police Dep't; Harold J. Burnett, Agawam Safety Officer; Mr. Putnam; Donald J. Campbell, Agawam superintendent of public works; Agawam police chief R. Kenneth Grady; and Edward W. Connelly, first selectman of Agawam.

PTA FIRST PLACE AWARD

The Agawam Council of PTA received a 1st place district citizenship award at the 60th annual convention of the Mass. Congress of Parents and Teachers Inc., which was held at the New Bedford Hotel, New Bedford.

Agawam Council was selected a recipient of the award at a meeting of the district directors of the Mass. Congress of PTA.

This award is for the most effective "Citizenship in Action" program during the school year 1968-1969, in the state, and is granted by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

The Council's program which merited the award was the formation and promotion of a Child Safety Committee. This committee aided in the elimination of many hazards through completing and acting on a rigid study of school traffic and safety hazards. Harold Burnett was chairman of this original committee for the council. The Town of Agawam now has a full-time safety program.

This is the 2nd time the Agawam Council has received a 1st place state award. The first time was in 1966 when they received the award for conducting a Measle Vaccine Clinic in cooperation with the Agawam Health Dep't. They then conducted 2 clinics and the effectiveness was proven by no reported cases of measles in that calendar year.

PTA's throughout the state attended the New Bedford convention. The theme of the outstanding program was "Imperative of Tomorrow."

Study groups and workshops were on: drugs, community involvement in schools, emotional health, smokeless generation and safety programs.

Representing Agawam were: PTA Council President, Mrs. Dominic DiDonato, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burnett, Mrs. Albert Taupier, Jr., Mr. William Carruth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fieldstead.

President Mr. Harold Burnett reminds you that if you vote early you will be able to make first choice of all these good homemade items.

Hot coffee and snacks may be obtained at the food booth throughout the day. And he requests that all members please take the time to come out and VOTE.

TODAY'S AGRI-FACT

More than $500 million in agricultural crops are lost annually over the U.S. due to air pollution. One of the problem pollutants is the ozone that is produced when sunlight shines through the products of combustion of coal or petroleum fuels, especially the exhaust gas from your car. Plants sensitive to ozone are tomatoes, tobacco, spinach, potatoes, pinto beans.

Voices from Home

For the fifth year, and in response to complimentary letters from servicemen and their families, who appreciated the "Voices From Home" programs of the Red Cross here over the last 5 years, the Greater Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross will again offer this opportunity in time for Christmas to families of our men and women overseas.

This project provides, free of any charge to the families or relatives, a tape-recorded message and an instantly developed photo of the recording group, sent airmail anywhere overseas, to a serviceman, or woman, or civilian in governmental advisory status. Advance appointments must be made, since this is a program manned by volunteers and advance planning is necessary.

"Voices From Home" will begin Sunday, Nov. 23, from 1 to 4:30 p.m. Another Sunday, Nov. 30, will also be open the same hours for appointments. Also, to accommodate people who work or otherwise cannot accept daytime weekday appointments, the project will operate Monday evenings, Nov. 24 and Dec. 1, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. To make reservations, phone Red Cross at 737-4306. The last recordings will be made Dec. 5, because overseas mail deadline is Dec. 10. Weekday appointments will be accepted Mondays through Friday, for 1:30 through 3:45 p.m., Thanksgiving and Saturdays excepted. Matthew Kulungian, volunteer chairman of this activity, started the work on this program.

When trouble in Vietnam was a sort of military secret, the Red Cross program of bringing a touch of home to our military personnel in the Southeast, struck a responsive chord. Springfield R.C. was one of the 1st chapters to undertake the project. Staffed entirely by volunteers, the equipment almost entirely has been donated, for which the chapter is appreciative. Last year, some 25 volunteers gave more than 150 hours of free service.

The tapes will be made at the chapter house, 275 Maple St., where ample off-street parking is available free. The taping periods will be 15 min. long, allowing time for posing for photos, makeup and so on. The tapes will be limited to 5 minutes, to keep the weight of the messages within the 1 oz. airmail limit.

Tape material, photo film and postage will be paid by the R.C. This is a service paid for by pledges to the Pioneer Valley United Fund-Red Cross.

Equipment, not already available, is being donated and volunteer workers are being signed up.

In other years the results of the recordings have been surprising. Many young servicemen have heard the sounds and voices of their children they had never seen. They heard the sounds and voices... the news of their sons and daughters as they grew up and waited for their fathers' return, especially at Christmastime. The flood of letters of appreciation to the Springfield R.C. has been shattering. So the job will be done again.

R.C. suggests that people planning to tape messages should make notes on paper... not just a letter-type thing. Jot down things you want to be sure to remember... you can easily forget when you face the "mike." Try to be cheerful... the boy overseas has his own overwhelming problems.

These things are necessary: bring the serviceman's complete mailing, address, rank, unit, serial number and overseas mailing address.

Those wishing to volunteer for this project may contact Mrs. Leslie Woods, or Mrs. Katharine Downey, at Springfield Red Cross.

The most disappointed people in the world are those who get what's coming to them.

ROBERTA DOERING ON ELECTION FOR SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Roberta Doering, candidate for School Committee, states that she feels that a woman should be on the School Committee since one half of the school population are girls and that a woman is more fitted to be their spokesman. A woman's voice is necessary on the Committee to reflect the desires and needs of the girls in our schools as well as those of the boys.

Mrs. Doering further points out that she is a member of Camp Norwich Y.M.C.A. Board of Managers, a member of the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Springfield Y.M.C.A. and a member of the metropolitan Board Executive Committee. In serving on these various boards she meets with men who are the leaders of the community. They establish policy and formulate programs to meet the needs and demands of the area. These policies and programs have to be kept within the framework of a strict budget.

In summary, Mrs. Doering states that she feels that her training and experience qualify her to make a contribution to good education for the children of Agawam through membership on the School Committee.

VENETTA SNYDER'S POSITION ON SCHOOL BOARD

Venetta Snyder Republican candidate for the Agawam School Board, states she would like to see the School Board initiate a complete study of the Guidance Program in the Agawam school system. In her statement, Mrs. Snyder said, "I feel a study of our present guidance program should be initiated to insure Agawam is exploring and making progressive strides in the most important service our school system offers. With a study of this type, we would be able to establish and set forth guidelines to insure we are training our children for present day vocations and occupations. A study of this nature would help us to determine the need of any curriculum changes needed to insure sound education for the academically artistically or business inclined student.

Mrs. Snyder further stresses the importance this study would have on the social conduct and education being offered. In explaining she continues, "I believe that it is at the elementary level social behavior problems are first recognized. It is only sound reasoning that problems of this kind could and should be corrected when first recognized and not wait until secondary schooling.

Mrs. Snyder concluded, "With the vast increase in population over the years this study could also establish

HE REDUCED THE TAX RATE $8.00

HERE'S THE TRUTH

At the 1966 February Town Meeting the 180 TOWN MEETING MEMBERS (Not Nardi) Voted and passed Article 93 that authorized the Assessors (Not Nardi) to use the sum of $226,069.00 from surplus funds TO REDUCE the tax rate.

These surplus funds were accumulated BEFORE Nardi took office.

Nardi, who at TOWN MEETINGS is known as "SILENT FRED", TOOK NO PART in the above action.

In 1967 your tax rate remained at $70⁰⁰ because the Town received its share of the SALES TAX money: $416,543.77.

VOTERS OF AGAWAM IT'S INCONCEIVABLE

THAT THE INTELLIGENT VOTER IN OUR TOWN could be told that a single individual, FRED NARDI, was responsible for not only predicting but actually reducing a tax rate and that he will do it again...

IT'S INCONCEIVABLE

THAT THIS SAME INDIVIDUAL, FRED NARDI

Could be sworn into office on Jan. 9, 1965, and in six short weeks after taking office, attend the first town meeting in his, lifetime, have no voice in the vote of the town meeting, and yet take single-handed credit for a tax reduction! Desregarding the fact that Edward W. Connelly was serving on the Board of Selectmen at that time and disregarding the part all dept. heads, Finance Board, 180 town meeting members Personnel Board and the Board of Assessors play in the tax rate for the ensuing year.

IT'S INCONCEIVABLE

That FRED NARDI could sit through three annual town meetings and never open his mouth in defense of a total of twenty one articles submitted in his name and watch every single one go down to defeat, yet still campaign as a leader and as a "General Manager" of a multi-million dollar business!

Our community while a multi-million dollar annual operation is not a food business. It is a cooperative, contributed to and owned by thousands of citizens concerned with educational facilities for their children, concerned with the health, safety and welfare of each individual and all governed by the laws of our town, our county and our state. Despite this fact, there has been an undeniable attempt to DOMINATE, rather than manage our multi-million town government. When a man seeks election to a public office it should be for the purpose of serving his community, not for the purpose of SELF INTEREST and DOMINATION.

SNYDER HEADS WNEC ALUMNI FUND DRIVE

Western New England College has announced that Brady D. Snyder of 10 Strawberry Hill Rd., Feeding Hills, Past President of the College's Alumni Assoc'n, has been named chairman of the Agawam - Feeding Hills section of the college Half Century Fund Drive.

In accepting the chairmanship, Mr. Snyder stated, "The goal of the Half Century Fund Drive is to raise $1,500,000 which is necessary to complete the projected 10 year development plan developed by the college in 1963. $1,000,000 will be used to build the much-needed academic classroom - laboratory building and $500,000 for the physical education building. If the drive is successful, it will provide the academic facilities to accommodate the number of full-time students projected by the long range study. If not, the college will find it difficult in providing an opportunity for young people to develop their professional and personal competence to the fullest, and to assist the economy of the area in developing a community resource of trained manpower."

The Agawam - Feeding Hills portion of the drive will be conducted from November 15 through 30. Alumni workers who will contact fellow Agawam - Feeding Hills Alumni are: Team #1: John F. Bartnik - Captain, Laurance R. Andrews, Allan E. Besette, Charles Heyl, Harris J. Sterling. Team #2: Roy K. Cowan - Captain, Robert A. Arnold, Albert J. Bonavita, Bruce E. Gaudette, John Themistos. Team #3: Ernest C. Swanson - mcaptain, Michael R. Bonavita, James E. Howard, Jr., Earl R. Rhodes, Clark R. Shea.

Mr. Snyder concluded: "It is possible for interested citizens, other than Alumni, wishing to assist in this fund drive to participate. Their gifts may be designated to a special building in the program or to subsidize some facility in one of the buildings in honor of an individual or a group or as a memorial. The plan for the Half Century Fund provides for such designation of gifts."

Persons interested in making gifts for these purposes should indicate their desire by calling Mr. J. Resler Shultz, Director of Development at W.N.E.C. or Mr. Snyder. Arrangements will be made to discuss the matter in detail.

Just like other athletes, the glamorous skaters in Ice Capades, must maintain a specific weight and are "weighed in" once a week.

In total man hours, it took the Ice Capades production staff almost 96,000 to put together this year's production. In terms of years, this amounts to a staggering total of 11.

It took almost 100 tailors, seamstresses, beaders and milliners 10 months to produce the more than 500 costumes that are used in this years edition of Ice Capades.

SPINACH GETS KO'D BY AIR POLLUTION

There seems to be some good in everything. Air pollution, for instance, promises to stamp out spinach.

While we are certain massive evidence exists closer to home, excellent confirmation that spinach has had its day in most of coastal America has been assembled at Longwood Gardens, one of the nation's major botanical centers at Kennett Square, Pa. At a recent conference, Dr. R. J. Seibert, director of Longwood Gardens, showed photographs of the blasted spinach leaves produced at the gardens and mentioned the disappearance of the green-leaf fodder from growing centers in New Jersey and the Pacific states.

In his discussion, Dr. Seibert produced color photographs of a whole span of vegetation that has been affected by air pollution at Longwood Gardens. The specific damage that furnished his illustrations occurred during a couple days in September when a temperature inversion pressed the noxious fumes of our civilization rather tightly against the earth.

Although Dr. Seibert considered most of the damage directly traceable to industrial air pollution sources, the closest industrial complex to the gardens is 28 air miles away.

Included in his display was the entire span of broad-leaved vegetables, including chard, beets, lettuce and the various forms which they assume. He also showed extensive damage to broad-leaved and coniferous trees.

Two favorite N.E. ornamentals, lilacs and various dogwoods, show exceptional sensitivity to air pollution, he said.

After exhibiting photographs of damaged celery leaves, Dr. Seibert commented that such damage has become so common that one seldom finds complete stalks of celery in the market. The celery leaves have been cut off because housewives might interpret the blackened leaves as indicating the celery was rotting.

Air pollution damage to plants becomes a tragedy in depth when gardeners misinterpret the source of damage and resort to spraying plants. Professional gardeners usually misinterpret the damage as originating from fungus and use fungicides on the plants — which is a waste of money. But the home gardener commonly turns to pesticides and when less damaging pesticides fail to work, the home gardener tends to use broad spectrum hard pesticides which not only fail to cure the damage of air pollution but also damage the environment.

Don't forget to start feeding the birds early.

guidelines as to how soon Agawam should develop and further extend the guidance department into the area of assisting the physically, emotional disturbed child and also cover the area of children with a learning disability, with a well trained staff in a well developed program in our own school system.

POULOS STATEMENT FOR LIBRARY TRUSTEE

I am sure that all of the taxpayers are deeply concerned with the utilization of their tax dollars.

At the present time an independent survey has already been completed, of the Library requirements for the town of Agawam. This coupled with the investigation being conducted, as to the towns need for a new school, should be the basis as to how monies should be expended.

The North Agawam and Feeding Hills libraries need physical improvements and these must be made to meet the demands of our constantly growing community. Close communication must be established between the library Board and the School Committee to insure that the requirements of all educational levels are completely satisfied.

We need business orientated people to give the Library Board the balance necessary to make the economical and beneficial decisions for the taxpayers of Agawam.

I believe that I have the financial, business, and educational background necessary to make the critical decisions required to institute a practical, cost conscious, feasible approach to the future development of the Agawam Library System over the next three years.

Previously I stated that I would work toward the next stage of Agawams Library development in these areas as an interested taxpayer; like yourself, I want the opportunity to serve you, and Agawam, in the capacity of Library Trustee.

To work at this position I need your help and would appreciate your vote on November 18th.
